Claimant -

Munisamappa, owner of premises No C 93-94,
Thigalarpet Main Road, 26th Division, Bangalore City

With reference to the order of acquisition in No L1.Pr 35/52-53 dated 27-10-1953 calling for objections of the owner above in respect of acquisition of premises No C 93-94, Thigalarpet, the claimant above states as follows -

On previous occasions the acquisition of the above premises C 93 and 94, were sought for and stopped at that on the objections being filed by the owner

The only premises in question C 93 and C 94 are owned by the above claimant. He has no other houses of his own in Bangalore City. The abovesaid premises are worth about Rs 7500/- under the present market rate as it is situated in a strategic position. If the above premises are acquired the claimant will have no other premises of his own and he will be deprived of the only immovable property that he has in Bangalore City. As an alternative measure if the learned Commissioner feels that there is an imperative necessity for acquiring the abovesaid premises in the interest of public he seeks compensation by way of granting a site of the same measurement in Jayachamarajendra Road with the identical premises being constructed at the cost of the Corporation and handed over to the claimant free from any other encumbrance.

Wherefore the claimant respectfully submits that he may be granted either Rs.7500/- in terms or money or an identical building constructed in Jayachamarajendra Road without any additional burden for the claimant
